

I'd hope that the Wisconsin law of the no-call list be upheld. It is the only recourse a consumer has against the invasion of my privacy by telemarketers. If someone stalks me, I get a restraining order. If someone breaks in, I call the police. A consumer's only safeguard against telemarketers is the Wisconsin no-call list. Please uphold it. Thank you.